KERN SCHOOLS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION RECEIVES AWARDS

Kern Schools Federal Credit Union recently received several awards from local non-profit organizations for supporting their charities. KSFCU received recognition and a plaque for selling the most tickets for the 7th annual St. Jude's Dream Home Giveaway in Bakersfield, CA helping raise over $713,800 for the fight against childhood cancer. "Kern Schools has been the most organized, fun, and highly visible financial institution we have worked with. We want them back next year as a partner because we've never had this much success; we attribute much of that to Kern Schools," said Mariana Vargas, ALSAC/St. Jude Event Marketing Representative.

Kern Schools Federal Credit Union was also recognized at this year's Boys & Girls Clubs of Kern County's annual ArtFest event for being a preferred partner in the community. "Kern Schools Federal Credit Union is Kern County. Not only do they support us, their employees volunteer their time to help make our events successful," stated Zane Smith, Executive Director of the Boys & Girls Club.

In addition, KSFCU raised $4,379 for the Downtown Fox Theater Foundation by selling yellow paper stars in all the branches to help with the restoration of the Fox Theater, one of Kern County's oldest landmarks. Also, KSFCU collectively raised $1,421 for the Children's Services at Bakersfield Memorial Hospital by supporting the Children's Miracle Network's Change Bandit promotion.

Kern Schools Federal Credit Union has been supporting Kern County's non-profit organizations for over 70 years and has been voted #1 Financial Institution 15 years in row by The Bakersfield Californian reader's poll.
